The furthest of this land from trunk line of railroad is not over eight miles. It is worth the price I am asking for a game preserve, as it is already abundantly stocked with deer, turkeys, partridges, opossums, fox, duck in winter and other game, and bounded on one side by one of the fluest fishing streams in Georgia, with shad plentiful in senson. It is also a fine stock range. It is now caring for over a thousand head of cattle and over two thousand head of hogs.
